GRAND OPENING

Cause to celebrate: Girl Scouts Western Oklahoma celebrated the opening of Camp Trivera, a $12 million STEM camp and event venue. Speakers were Oklahoma City Mayor David Holt, along with Girl Scouts Western Oklahoma CEO Shannon Evers, and capital campaign chairmen Myrla Pierson and Linda Whittington. Self-guided tours were available and 150 people attended. Honorary co-chairmen were Jean McLaughlin, Dave McLaughlin, Amy Gray and Kelly Gray.

Top billing: Some of the donors and dignitaries attending were Bob Ross, Catherine Oster, Polly Nichols, Annie Bohanon, Joan Maguire, Amy Maguire, Kay Goebel, Carol Johnson, Justin Evers, Karen Luke, Steve Mason, Wendy Drummond and Dwight Lawson.

Other events: The weekend's events also included socially distanced tours of the new camp for local Girl Scouts, who heard about STEM careers for women from Boeing employee Kristin Holland. When not in use by the Girl Scouts, Camp Trivera will be available for private rentals.
